

"UNTO THESE HILLS"

Cherokee, North Carolina

As the first of the American Indians to make an effort to live in peace with the white man, the Cherokee are shown joining their white neighbors in a folk dance as depicted in the great historical drama of the Cherokee Indians, "Unto These Hills," which plays nightly except Mondays from late June through early September at Mountainside Theatre at Cherokee, North Carolina.

Published by Cherokee Historical Association, Cherokee, N. C.

1-
BBB

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address

Copyright 1956, W. M. Cline Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

19003